       18.8. Travel Agents may reissue tickets for travel that will be completed one year from the original date of issuance. Reissuing tickets before the ticket expiration date for travel that occurs after the expiration date will result in travel interruptions as the reissued ticket and related travel is only valid for one year from the expiration date.
19. Young Traveler
      19.1. Young Travelers (ages 12-17 traveling alone) can be booked through the GDS for US Domestic Travel only; however, you must call Southwest Airlines at 800-435-9792 to complete necessary travel documents. Any Young Traveler reservation booked outside of the continental US plus Hawaii not linked, via an OSI, to a reservation containing a parent or guardian 18 years or older may be canceled without prior notification. Agencies who repeatedly book YT international reservations in the GDS may be subject to loss of ticketing authority. For additional information visit: https://www.southwest.com/help/flying-with-children/young-travelers-terms-and-conditions ▶ 19.2. Travelers ages 2 – 17 that are traveling with a parent or guardian 18 years of age or older on a separate PNR must add the OSI WN (SWA Locator) of the parent PNR.
20. Voluntary Changes
      20.1. Cancellation and Change Fee Policy
             20.1.1. Southwest Airlines does not charge a fee for any changes or cancellations. Fare and tax differences may apply
       20.2. Loss of Ticket Agent control and refundability following Southwest Airlines Reissue 20.2.1. Ticket Agents will not have the ability to refund or exchange tickets that have been reissued by Southwest Airlines. All further exchanges and cancellations will need to be done by Southwest Airlines agents or through Southwest Airlines direct channels.
             20.2.2. Credit from tickets issued by or reissued by Southwest Airlines will be reusable in the form of Southwest Airlines flight credits that can be applied to future travel booked
                   20.2.2.1. If a Ticket Agent has any questions about flight credits following a Southwest Airlines reissuance, contact Southwest Airlines at 1-800-435-9792.
21. Cancellation and Exchange Policies:
       21.1. Ticket Cancellations
             21.1.1. Cancellations may be performed in either the GDS or Southwest Airlines direct channels 21.1.1.1. Passengers can cancel their booking on Southwest.com and other direct channels. This will leave the ticket in open status for the Ticket Agent to refund or use for future travel in the GDS according to applicable fare rules 21.1.1.2. Agencies booking through Worldspan, Apollo, or Galileo may be affected by an "Airport Control" status when modifying a reservation within 24 hours of departure. Please call Southwest Airlines at 1-800-435-9792.
       21.2. Ticket Exchanges
             21.2.1. When an exchange results in a downgrade due to a lower fare, remaining values of $100 or more must be issued in the form of a nonrefundable/nontransferable MCO, valid on Southwest Airlines only. MCOs expire one year from the date the MCO was issued. MCOs may not be reissued into the name of another Traveler 21.2.2. Downgrade exchange transactions (Wanna Get Away or Wanna Get Away Plus®) with a remaining balance should not be treated as "even exchange" and balances should not be classified as Admin or Penalty Fees. A debit memo will be issued to Agencies who do not place remaining balances of $100 or more on a MCO.
             21.2.3. Ticket Agents who originally issued a refundable ticket (Business Select or Anytime) can refund the residual value to the original form of payment
             21.2.4. Ticket revalidation by Agency is not permitted
             21.2.5. When exchanging an itinerary that has been partially flown, exchange and pricing are permitted on unflown coupons only. Flown coupons should not be included in an 21.2.6. Tickets and MCOs are valid in the GDS for travel for one year from the original issuance date. Exchanged Tickets and MCOs must be rebooked, and travel must be completed one year from the original issuance date. Exchanging tickets before the expiration date for travel after the expiration date will result in travel disruptions
22. Wanna Get Away and Wanna Get Away Plus® Tickets
       22.1. Reservations cancelled at least 10 minutes prior to departure time are eligible for exchange.
       22.2. Ticket Agents may only refund taxes and fees collected on international Wanna Get Away and Wanna Get Away Plus® tickets where required by law
23. Name Correction Policy
       23.1. Southwest will allow the following minor name corrections when "NAMECORRECT" is present in the endorsement field. Southwest defines minor name corrections below in addition to there being no changes to the gender or date of birth in the secure flight (docs) SSR. "NAMECORRECT" must be present in the endorsement field to avoid a debit memo when making the following minor corrections:
             23.1.1. Inverted names
             23.1.2. Adding/removing middle name or initial 23.1.3. Adding/removing hyphenated last name
             23.1.4. Adding/removing repetitive characters in first or last name (ex. Willliam to William or Rebeca to Rebecca)
             23.1.5. Minor typos limited to a max of 3 characters in the first name only
             23.1.6. Adding/removing Prefixes/Suffixes (Mr., Mrs, Dr., Jr, Esq.)
CHECK-IN
24. EarlyBird Check-In 24.1. Purchasing EarlyBird is not necessary for Passengers with A-List/A-List Preferred status, Business Select Fares, Anytime, or who will need to pre-board (see full Southwest 24.2. EarlyBird Check-In can be purchased for GDS-issued tickets through Southwest Airlines direct channels, when available. For more information see https://www.southwest.com/fag/earlybird-checkin 24.2.1. EarlyBird is nonrefundable. In the event of a Southwest Airlines flight cancellation, the amount paid for EarlyBird will automatically be refunded to the original form of payment. Ticket Agents are not permitted to refund any EarlyBird purchases 24.2.2. Tickets with EarlyBird that are purchased or exchanged between 36 and 25 hours, the boarding position assignment process has begun so this may impact the boarding position assigned to you. If you purchase an Anytime fare within 24 hours of your flight's scheduled departure, you will not receive the EarlyBird Check-in benefit.
25. EarlyBird Purchase in the GDS
       > 25.1. When available, EarlyBird can be reserved via a Special Service Request (SSR), but will be canceled after 2 hours if not purchased.
       25.2. Credit Card form of payment only 25.3. EarlyBird EMDs must be purchased per segment, per passenger to avoid debit memo(s). Travel Agents may not issue one EarlyBird EMD for multiple origin and destination segments combined
      25.4. Ticket Agent may exchange and re-associate EarlyBird EMD(s) in the approved GDS up to 36 hours prior to departure. Exchanges of EarlyBird in the GDS between 36 to 25 hours before departure cannot be completed. However, Travel Agents may call Southwest Airlines at 1-800-435-9792 to request re-association of EarlyBird to a new flight if they processed the exchange between 36 to 25 hours prior to departure 25.5. Same day voids are allowed for EarlyBird EMD(s) purchase(s)
       ▶ 25.6. EarlyBird EMDs are Non-Refundable
SERVICE INTERRUPTIONS/IRREGULAR OPERATIONS ("IROPs")
26. IROPs Policy
       26.1. For the purposes of this Policy, irregular operations (IROP) includes but is not limited to; a delay or cancellation of a scheduled flight within 72hrs of departure or an aircraft equipment change impacting the accommodation of all Customers presented at check-in. Before using an IROP waiver code check https://www.southwest.com/html/historical-waiver/to ensure an Event Waiver has not been published.
             26.1.1. Ticket Agents may self-serve IROP-affected flights. Ticket Agents must confirm the flight status was affected by an IROP before using the IROP Waiver Code process.
                 Travel must be rebooked in the original class of service when available. If the original branded fare is not available, the Customer may be rebooked in ANYTIME fares.
                 Exchanging from a WGA, PLU or ANY fare to a BUS fare without collecting additional funds will result in debit memo(s)
             26.1.2 debit memos
                      26.1.2.1. Exchanges-Ticket Agent must enter 'IROP1234061871' (4-digit flight number and 6-digit affected date in Month-Day-Year) in the endorsement when servicing ticket exchange of a reservation affected by an irregular operation.
                    26.1.2.2. Refunds- Ticket Agent must enter 'IROP1234061871' (4-digit flight number and 6-digit affected date in Month-Day-Year) in the REN (Refund Exchange Notice) when refunding a reservation affected by an irregular operation greater than 60 minutes and there is no reasonable travel alternative.
       26.2. Accommodation Procedures
             26.2.1. When IROPs occur, Southwest Airlines will handle all Passengers according to the provisions of the Contract of Carriage and Customer Service Commitment which can be found by clicking "Customer Commitments" tab at: https://www.southwest.com/about-southwest/index.html
       26.3. Flight Cancellation and Delays Notifications:
             26.3.1. Customers may receive the following notifications for changes in the operation of a scheduled Southwest Airlines flight:
                   26.3.1.1. Flight cancellation
                   26.3.1.2. Flight departure delay
                   ≥ 26.3.1.3. Flight re-accommodation
27. Schedule Changes and Ticket Revalidation/Reissuance Policy
      27.1. If Southwest Airlines changes the operating schedule of a flight outside of 72 hours prior to departure, then Southwest Airlines will re-book the Passenger on a new itinerary and queue the PNR to the Ticket Agent to follow one of the following actions:
             27.1.1. Accept the schedule change by reissuing the ticket as an even exchange using the applicable waiver code
             27.1.2. Rebook the affected segment once as an even exchange (within 14 days of original scheduled date, same fare product)
                   27.1.2.1. Ticket Agents must enter the following endorsement format when servicing an exchange on a reservation on the schedule change queue to avoid a debit memo:
                          > 27.1.2.1.1. WAIVESC1234061871
                                > 27.1.2.1.1.1. Enter "WAIVESC" to denote this reissue is the result of an Advanced Schedule Change
                                27.1.2.1.1.2. Then enter 4-digit flight number of affected flight (lead with zero(s) as necessary)
                                27.1.2.1.1.3. Insert affected flight date in 6-digit format, Month-Day-Year
             27.1.3. Cancel the PNR and fully refund the ticket
                   27.1.3.1. Ticket Agents must enter the following refund waiver in the REN (Refund Exchange Notice) if the Passenger requests to cancel and refund their reservation after > 27.1.3.1.1. SC1234061871
                                > 27.1.3.1.1.1. Use "SC" to denote this reissue is the result of an Advanced Schedule Change
                                27.1.3.1.1.2. Then enter 4-digit flight number of affected flight (lead with zero(s) as necessary) after "SC"
                                ▶ 27.1.3.1.1.3. Insert affected flight date in 6-digit format, Month-Day-Year
      27.2. Ticket Agents are allowed to rebook a ticket to/from the following co-terminal airports to provide the best re-accommodation to the Passenger:

    BWI/IAD/DCA

    CLE/CMH

    CVG/CMH

    DEN/COS

    ECP/PNS

    ECP/VPS

    EUG/PDX

• LAX/BUR/SNA/ONT/LGB 28. Travel Advisory with Waiver Codes 28.1. Situations that affect multiple flights may result in Southwest Airlines generating a Waiver Code to allow Ticket Agents the ability to re-accommodate Passengers as needed 28.1.1. Note: if a ticket has already been reissued by Southwest Airlines, then all changes will need to be made by Southwest Airlines agents 28.2.1. Note the parameters of each Waiver Code for included dates, cities, and rebooking allowances. These are subject to change without notice and changes made outside of the allowed conditions may result in a debit memo 28.3. If a Passenger requests a change to their itinerary and their Ticket is covered within the conditions of the Waiver Code, then the Ticket Agent may: 28.3.1. Rebook the Passenger on a new itinerary and reissue the ticket with no fare difference, adding the Waiver Code in the endorsement field 29. Mobile Notification (MN) of Service Disruption Impacting Travel 🤰 29.1. There may be instances where a Customer is notified via their mobile device of an airport or city-specific service disruption that may impact their existing reservation. Because this type of exception has minimal impact on our overall flight schedule, no Dynamic Waiver will be published. In the event the Customer receives a "Mobile" notification stating that a One-Time change to flight date or flight time is being offered, please use the below Waiver process: 29.2. Rebook the affected segment once as an even exchange (within 24hrs of original scheduled date, same fare product)

29.3. Ticketing Agents must enter the following endorsement format when servicing a reservation on the mobile notification to avoid a debit memo:

29.4 Same-day changes may be initiated by Southwest Airlines to initiate a re-issuance of the ticket resulting in the Ticket Agent no longer controlling the ticket

31.1. For GDS transactions, Southwest Airlines utilizes ARC Memo Manager for issuance, correspondence and reporting of Agency Debit Memos ("ADM")

31.2.1.2. Ticket Agents should not create multiple itineraries thus blocking several flights when such itinerary is impossible to fly

31.2.4.1. Ticket Agents are requested to refrain from making bookings with fictitious names in an effort to block inventory

31.2.4.2. Creating live PNRs for the purpose of training or testing is prohibited as blocking inventory is a violation of our booking policy

31.2.4.4. Since there is no business need for a fictitious booking, an ADM will be issued even if there is one fictitious booking found.

30.1. Southwest Airlines will audit all GDS bookings to ensure compliance with Policies and Procedures. Violating Ticketing Policies and Procedures will result in the issuance of a Debit Memo sent through ARC Memo Manager for the value of the ticketing violation, $75 for booking violation or $50 for policy violation, plus service charge. Southwest Airlines may revoke an Agent's ability to book and ticket Southwest Airlines inventory and holds Ticketing Agents responsible for any actions taken by them, or their employees or sub-agents

31.1.1. For any questions or concerns that cannot be resolved through Memo Manager, Ticket Agents can contact Southwest Airlines B2B Services at 1-214-792-6777

31.2.1.1. A duplicate booking consists of same Passenger, travel dates, city pairs and itinerary. Ticket Agents should not create duplicate bookings for a passenger in different PNRs. Agents may self-serve refunding duplicate bookings in their GDS. To refund the duplicate ticket, Agents must enter a waiver code in the REN (Refund Exchange Notice). The waiver code format must state "DUPE" and include the 10-digit ticket number of the active ticket. Waiver Code Ex: "DUPE1234567890" Note: Do

31.2.2.1.1. Southwest Airlines understands rebooking is a necessary practice to Accommodate Customers. However, any cancellation/rebook of the same Customer, flight, date, and route to extend the ticketing time limit, to circumvent a fare rule, or to achieve GDS productivity targets are prohibited and on the 4th attempt and any subsequent attempts thereafter will result in a debit memo for each segment/passenger or a debit memo per segment/per passenger

31.2.3.1. It is Ticket Agent's responsibility to monitor the queues and release inactive segments with HX, UN, UC, NO, SC, TK, TL, TN, UU, US, PN, WL, WN, DL, DS, IX,

31.2.4.3. Celebrity or famous personality bookings can be genuine however, Southwest Airlines may take action after an evaluation and review of booking pattern

31.3. Southwest Airlines will utilize ARC Memo Manager to communicate and track the payment of all Debit Memos create an Agency Debit Memo ("ADM") for reasons included but

> 29.3.1.1.1. Enter "WAIVEMN" to denote the Waiver is related to a mobile notification

▶ 31.2.2.1. Ticket Agents should refrain from repeatedly cancelling and re-booking

31.2.4.2.1. Such bookings include the use of a valid surname followed by initials:

31.2.4.5. To ensure accurate Secure Flight Line (DOCS), fictitious dates of birth are not allowed

29.3.1.1.2. Then enter 4-digit flight number of original flight (lead with zero(s) as necessary) > 29.3.1.1.3. Then enter original travel date as 010120 = 2-digit Month 2-digit Day 2-digit Year
